More of my reviews can be found at: Adult in the Ya Section " The Collection " picks up immediately from where " The Registry " ended, with Mia in the company of Riley and Andrew and Carter being held captive. Riley is my favorite character in the series up to this point, and I hope we get to see more. My feelings on " The Collection " are very mixed.

I enjoyed this story. I felt like it might have been meant for a younger audience, but then, I like many different genres stretching across many generations of target audiences. The storyline was clear, the characters likable and I was happy to find this sequel to The Registry. I will read more of Shannon Stoker.
